

CHIEF EVE R. IRVINE

Chief Eve R. Irvine began her law enforcement career with the Inglewood Police Department in 1984 after graduating from the LASD Academy. As an officer, she worked a variety of assignments including: Patrol, Drug Abuse Resistance Education (D.A.R.E.) and Detectives. As a Detective, Chief Irvine became a nationally recognized expert in the area of Domestic Violence and worked assignments in Sex Crimes, Child Abuse, Major Assaults, and Robbery.

Chief Irvine was promoted to the rank of Sergeant in 1994 and worked a variety of assignments as a front line supervisor in both the Patrol and Administrative Bureaus. Chief Irvine was promoted to the rank of Lieutenant in 1999 where she commanded the Community Affairs Section, Internal Affairs and was the Press Information Officer.

Chief Irvine was later promoted to the rank of Captain in 2003, and in 2011, was appointed Chief of Police for the Manhattan Beach Police Department. She currently serves as a member on the California Police Chiefs' Association Law & Legislation Committee and the Training Committee, and is the Los Angeles County Police Chiefs Association's representative on the Los Angeles County Peace Officers Memorial Foundation. Chief Irvine is also a board member on the Governor's Medal of Valor Committee.

Chief Irvine said following her appointment as Chief of Police, "I am honored to be part of this extraordinary family. Integrity, compassion, transparency and 'Excellence through Teamwork' will remain our focus as we strive to provide the highest level of service to our community".