

LIEUTENANT ANDREA GROSSMAN

Lieutenant Andrea Grossman began her career in law enforcement as a Reserve Police Officer with the Los Angeles Police Department. She has been with the Los Angeles Police Department as a full time police officer for over 26 years. Her previous assignments included Patrol, Traffic, Community Relations and Internal Affairs Group.

She is currently assigned to Juvenile Division, where she is the Officer-In-Charge (OIC) of the Internet Crimes Against Children (ICAC) Unit, and the ICAC Commander for the Regional Los Angeles ICAC Task Force Program. The Los Angeles ICAC Unit is responsible for investigating Internet predators and the possession and distribution of child pornography over the Internet, child exploitation, possession of child pornography over the Internet, child exploitation, possession of child pornography, and child predators.

The Los Angeles ICAC is responsible for a five county area working in tandem with fifty affiliate state, local and federal law enforcement agencies. She has been the Operations Chair for the National ICAC and is the current National Chair for Public Awareness for the ICAC. She is the United States Representative for State and Local Law Enforcement Liaison to INTERPOL.

She graduated from the University of La Verne and California State University at Long Beach. She has earned a Bachelor of Science and Master of Science Degree. She also received a Presidential appointment as a Fulbright Scholar in the United Kingdom for the study of Victimology.