

OFFICER MONIQUE VALENZUELA

Sergeant II Monique Valenzuela, has been a member of the Los Angeles Police Department for over twelve years. She currently has dual status as a Police Sergeant and Police Detective. Currently, she is the Officer in Charge of the Ramona Gardens Community Safety Partnership (CSP) Team in Hollenbeck Division. She was selected as Hollenbeck's 2017 Supervisor of The Year and received the 2018 Kelly Key Award.

Prior to her current assignment, she was the Operations- Central Bureau Gang Reduction Youth Development (GRYD) Coordinator. Her prior assignments include patrol operations at Central Division, Foothill Division, Olympic Division (FTO), 77th (Field Sergeant), Olympic Detectives Division, OCB, Newton Division (Acting Assistant Watch Commander).

Monique attended Point Loma Nazarene University and obtained her Bachelor's Degree in Psychology and Industrial Organizational Psychology. She was also afforded the opportunity to study abroad at Cambridge University in England, where she studied Political Science and International Law. Monique obtained her Masters of Science Degree in Leadership and Management from the University of La Verne. Most recently, she graduated from the Sherman Block Supervisory Leadership Institute. Monique is an active LAWPOA member, and in 2015 was the recipient of the LAWPOA Scholarship award.