

Los Angeles Women Police Officers and Associates

Purpose

To promote the status of and increase the representation of women and men in leadership positions in the public safety profession; create and set a professional standard of service and conduct among all members of public safety; and to bind the members in a bond of support, recognition, leadership and community service that is above and beyond the call of duty.

Mission

To support our membership in the public safety profession in the achievement of their individual and professional goals by contributing to their educational and career development by providing professional networking avenues, scholarships, training and peer mentoring.

History

LAWPOA was originally established in 1925 to help promote leadership for women in law enforcement. However, today we are made up of men and women, sworn and civilian in all aspects of public safety.

We seek to:

- Develop and encourage professional standards for all employees in public safety;
- Provide training and development assistance to our members;
- Network with other public safety agencies in the community to increase awareness.
